

AANS Resident Mentoring Program

See what some of the current and previous participants have said about this program:

"The AANS Resident Mentoring Program is an excellent opportunity to have one-on-one dialogue with an attending in a practice setting and field of your interest outside of your training program." Brad E. Zacharia, MD, New York, NY

"The AANS Resident Mentoring Program has been an exciting experience. I had the chance to meet my Mentor in person and discuss with him about the possible choices for my career after the residency program." Alberto Feletti, MD, San Francisco, CA

"Very valuable; I still keep in touch with my mentor." Tausif-Ur Rehamn, MD, Albuquerque, NM.

"It [Mentoring Program] has benefited me; simply having an experienced faculty who is not directly related to my home program to ask questions to has been helpful." Ian Mutchnick, MD, Louisville, KY

"Yes it [Mentoring Program] benefits me because I had the opportunity to talk about doubt with other Neurosurgeons who have more experience than I." Guipson Dhaity, MD, Lerma de Villada, Mexico

"Military surgeons were able to help with questions unique to my situation." Scott Philips, MD, Detroit, MI

"I think this [Mentoring Program] is an absolutely crucial part to the maturation and professional development of young neurosurgeons. I correspond once a month with my mentor and his advice has not only been helpful, but also directly influential on my career path. I think anyone who is willing to, should sign u." Brian Gantwerker, MD, Cleveland, OH

"I think the program is well run. The more interactions the better. I found it helpful to discuss fellowship applications." Rene O. Sanchez-Mejia, MD, San Francisco, CA

"The program is great. It gives residents like myself to use someone else's experience to plan for the future." Roham Moftakhar, MD, Madison, WI

"I have a new understanding and a better confidence in my decisions as a result of conversations with my mentor." Brian Snyder, MD, New York, NY
