

Position Statement: 1989 Apr 01

Conduct of Candidates in Elections

Contact(s):

Heather L Monroe

The Bylaws of the American Association of Neurological Surgeons provide procedural guidelines for elections. Several additional points of ethical relevance include:

Opposing candidates, while they may have differing views, should continue to cooperate with their colleagues in patient related matters.

Professional announcements, including videotape, radio, newspaper and pamphlets, should be done in a tasteful manner.