These rules and regulations have been established to protect the interest of exhibitors, show management and medical attendees.

Interpretation of Rules
The following rules and regulations are part of the contract between the exhibitor and the AANS/CNS Section on Pediatric Neurological Surgery (the Section). All matters not covered in these rules and regulations shall be referred to the Section for adjudication, and the decision of the Section shall be final. These rules and regulations may be amended at any time by the Section, and all the amendments so made shall be binding upon the exhibitor equally with these rules and regulations and shall become a part thereof, provided the exhibitor is notified of the amendments. Notice may be verbal or in writing, before or during the Annual Meeting of the AANS/CNS Section on Pediatric Neurological Surgery and may be given to any authorized agent or representative of the exhibitor.

Eligibility to Exhibit
This exhibition is designed for the display and demonstration of products and services relating to the practice and advancement of the art and science of neurological surgery and the professional education of medical attendees. Only companies exhibiting products and services related to the neurosciences are eligible to exhibit.

Payment
Payment in full must accompany the signed exhibit agreement application.

Refund for Cancellation
Requests for cancellation of exhibit must be made in writing. Written cancellations received prior to Oct. 23, 2020, result in a full refund. Cancellations received Oct. 23-30, 2020, result in forfeiture of 50% of the total booth fee and those received after Oct. 30, 2020, result in forfeiture of 100% of the total booth fee. Refunds will be made in the form of payment originally received by the AANS.

Arrangement of Virtual Exhibits
The show management reserves the right to inspect the quality of the appearance of each virtual booth prior to content. Virtual exhibitors are provided a link to upload their exhibit information to the virtual platform when payment is received. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to upload the customized listing with banner, description, downloadable resources, website and contact links. Virtual booth set-up must be completed by November 16, 2020.

Subleasing of Virtual Space
The subletting or apportionment of the whole or any part of an exhibitor’s space by the exhibitor is prohibited. Exhibitors may not advertise or display goods in their exhibit other than those manufactured or sold by them in the regular course of their business. Exhibitors may not permit any other party to exhibit in their space or display goods other than those manufactured or distributed by the contracting exhibitor.

FDA Compliance
Any medical device exhibited must have fulfilled all applicable Federal Drug Administration (FDA) regulations. Unapproved devices with pending premarket approval (PMA) applications or premarket notification (510 (k)) submissions should bear a label stating: “Pending 510 (k)/PMA, not available for sale within the United States.” Unapproved devices without a pending 510 (k) or PMA should bear a label stating: “Not available in the United States.” Products in the development stage should bear a label stating: “Work in progress.”

Virtual Exhibitor Conduct and Relevance
All virtual exhibit booths will be to serve the interest of the attendees and must be pertinent to the advancement of the practice of neurosurgery. The Section reserves the right to restrict virtual exhibit sales to potential exhibitors it deems inappropriate or unprofessional.

Exhibitor’s Personnel
Virtual exhibitors are prohibited from sharing badges or login information for the virtual meeting. Violating this condition may result in loss of admittance for the person(s) sharing the badge or login. Exhibitors are expected to treat everyone with respect. and dignity. The Section policy regarding harassment and disruptive behavior at meetings and courses can be found here.

Liability/Hold Harmless Agreement

Each exhibitor assumes full responsibility and liability for and agrees to protect, defend, indemnify, save and hold forever harmless the AANS, CNS, AANS/CNS Section on Pediatric Neurological Surgery, Digitell and their respective agents, servants, employees, representatives, successors and assigns, from any and against all claims, demands, causes of action, damages, costs and expenses, including attorney’s fees, for injury to person or damage to property, including theft, misappropriation or loss of property asserted against either or all of them arising out of or in connection with the exhibitor’s participation at the meeting.

The exhibitor further waives any claim against the AANS, CNS, AANS/CNS Section on Pediatric Neurological Surgery, Digitell and its agents, employees, representatives, successors and assigns, arising out of the oral or written publication of any statement made in connection with the AANS/CNS Section on Pediatric Neurological Surgery Annual Meeting by anyone not an employee of the AANS concerning the exhibitor or his/her exhibit.

In the event of a severe platform or technical issue outside of AANS, CNS and AANS/CNS Section on Pediatric Neurological Surgery’s control that prevents fulfillment of the sponsorship deliverables, the AANS/CNS Section on Pediatric Neurological Surgery will make every effort to provide the same sponsorship opportunity on a different date/time proposed by AANS/CNS Section on Pediatric Neurological Surgery. Should the AANS/CNS Section on Pediatric Neurological Surgery be unable to satisfy the original sponsorship, comparable alternative opportunities will be offered.

The performance of this agreement is subject to acts of God, war, government regulation, disaster, fire, epidemic, threatened or imminent strikes, civil disorder, threats of terrorist attacks or other similar occurrence beyond the control of the parties, making it illegal, impossible or commercially impractical to carry on the virtual exhibit or fully perform the terms of this agreement. This agreement may be terminated, or performance may be excused without penalty, for any one or more of such reasons by written notice from one party to the other.

Violations

Violations of any of these rules and regulations by the exhibitor or company employees or agents shall at the options of the Section forfeit the exhibitor’s right to occupy virtual space and such exhibitors shall forfeit to the Section all monies paid or due. Upon evidence of violation, the Section may take possession of the virtual space occupied by the exhibitor and may remove all persons and goods at the exhibitor’s risk.
